Nick Hope, a 97-year-old Holocaust survivor imprisoned at the Nazi concentration camp Dachau, is warning against the Austrian government's authoritarian and totalitarian Covid measures. "When I look at the news in Austria, I see the spirit of Hitler, the spirit of force coming there," he says in a video message.

In November 2021, Austria's unelected Federal Chancellor, Alexander Schallenberg, announced lockdowns for the unvaccinated. Shortly afterwards, the Austrian government placed the entire country under a strict 20-day lockdown. Although the general lockdown is scheduled to end on December 12th, it will remain in place for those who have not been injected with the mRNA serums indefinitely.

The controversial Chancellor has now announced his government will be forcing all residents to take the mRNA gene-therapy injection. Those who refuse will face heavy fines and possible prison sentences starting in February 2022.

Mr. Hope fears that Austria's tyrannical's measure will also come to the United States, where he now lives. "Because gradually we are losing our freedoms. Please pray, Wake up, please" begs, the Holocaust survivor.

While Austria is the first major country to impose mandatory vaccination on all citizens, other leaders have expressed openness to the idea.

In recent days, Germany has also made moves towards a mandatory vaccine policy. Incoming left-wing German Chancellor Olaf Scholz stated that he would support a vaccine mandate and vote for it in the German parliament.

This past Wednesday, Ursula von der Leyen, the head of the EU commission, told the press that she favors scrapping the long-standing Nuremberg Code and forcing people to get the gene-therapy jab.
